California Distribution Center Update

We are excited to announce today our plans to open a new distribution center, with increased capacity on the West Coast to service our bi-coastal manufacturing operations. This upgraded distribution center, located in Rancho Cucamonga, will begin shipping product on Monday, February 24, 2025.

Our current distribution center in Ontario, California will no longer ship and receive product on that day. Any backhaul needs to be directed to the new address below effective February 24, 2025.

The mailing address for the new distribution center is:

B. Braun US Pharma Manufacturing LLC
12400 Arrow Route

Please note our new GLN and SGLN numbers below:

GLN: 4039239002437

We expect a seamless transition to our new distribution center and look forward to supporting you and the patients you serve.
