Discontinuation of Sales Notice
CME® Ambulatory Infusion System

Dear Valued Customer:

Please find the following information regarding the discontinuation of sales for all CME Ambulatory Infusion products. As you are aware, B. Braun and CME have agreed to terminate our exclusive sales arrangement for CME pump and administration set products. As such, B. Braun will no longer be selling CME ambulatory infusion pump products as of 12/31/2018. To expedite the transition process, B. Braun has agreed to forward all CME pump and accessory orders to CME directly. Accordingly, we would encourage you to begin pricing negotiations for all CME products with the contact listed below. I have included the catalog numbers for all CME products that B. Braun has previously sold. While this list is complete for B. Braun, there may be additional items provided by CME that were not sold by B. Braun. You can request a complete list of products from CME.

It is important to note that B. Braun will continue to provide administration sets per our exclusive agreement with CME until 12/31/2018. Throughout the second half of this year, B. Braun will forward purchase inquiries to CME as we deplete inventory.

If you purchase CME pump sets via distribution, our distribution partners have been notified and will help provide as seamless a transition as possible during this process. Please contact them directly at your earliest convenience.

If you purchase sets directly from B. Braun it is important that you begin pricing negotiations with CME as soon as possible to minimize the potential for supply disruption during this transition. Please use the contact provided by CME below to begin these pricing discussions.

It is also important to note that B. Braun will be removing all CME product codes from any active contracts effective January 1, 2019. This would include, but not be limited to, Group Purchasing Organization (GPO), Distribution, Network and Individual agreements.

Thank you in advance for your continued support during this transition process. Please contact your B. Braun Account Manager if you have any questions or require additional clarification regarding this notice and we will address them as quickly as possible.

Best Regards,

Michael J Zakrewski
