
PRINTED NAME

SIGNATURE

DATE

Training Lesson: Manual Programming

1. What are the three questions that must be answered when manually programming the PINNACLE Compounder?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

2. Please describe the intent of the questions defined in Question 1 above in more detail.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

3. When identifying the Source Solution to be compounded for Station 7, what area of the Main Screen must be touched?

4. When the area of the Main Screen is touched as defined in Question 3 above, what then appears on the Main Screen for Station 7?

5. What are the four major categories of Source Solutions?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

6. What three methods can the User use to scroll through a category of Source Solutions?

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

7. Once selected, what button must the User press to confirm the Source Solution selection?

8. What two methods can the User use to access the Volume to be delivered for a Source Solution?

a. _____

b. _____

9. When the Volume to be delivered area for Station is accessed, what then appears on the Main screen?

10. Please describe how the Volume to be delivered for a Source Solution is entered when using the numeric entry keypad.

11. Please describe the sequence, in order, of keys to be pressed when entering a delivery volume of 85.4 mL.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

e. _____